

RIDER ALERT!

Based on the current public information available regarding the end of State furloughs, El Dorado Transit will resume full weekday commuter service on Fridays, effective this Friday, July 2, 2010, until further notice.

El Dorado Transit will continue to monitor State employee schedules, and in the event that furloughs are continued or reinstated, modified service schedules may be reinstated accordingly. El Dorado Transit will make every effort to inform passengers of any such service modifications before they are implemented.
